Highlights? - Comments - Observations

Week 1 Bill Erhrhard opens up the new season by throwing the first ball. He used to bowl regularly, and decided to retire again after one ball and a few beers. Phil "Mr.Consistency" Jozwiak begins with a bang rolling 150-233-227. Mark "Century" Hejna follows a 263 with a 145. To Tim T.: If the nicotine fits, wear it? Tim tried bumming cigarettes but everyone he asked has quit, so maybe he should give it up if he has to buy them.

Week 2 Phil J. rolls an 11-in-a-row 290; will it hold up for high game? Close, but no cigar. Bob "Century"/"Mr.Consistency" Wesolich shoots 111-215-101.

Week 3 Frank Vullo leaves the 5-7-10 in practice, but it's not worth anything there. Eddie Bolden is "Mr.Consistency" with 207-147-201.

Week 4 Greg Klocke shoots 288/777 which are unprecedented handicap scores of 348/947 on his current (miniscule) average. Greg had a great time, just ask Todd B.

Week 5 Highway earns a "Century" experience with 1023-1126-1223. Klocke has another good night with 714.

Week 6 Kent "Century" Burgess follows a 149 with a 256. Ken Munder peaks early with 747.

Week 7 Bob Elsperman has a great game, 274, with the first 9 strikes and a reportedly VERY nervous 10th frame. Bob earns "Century" awards with 171 and 168 surrounding the other one. Brian "Mr.Consistency" Gorniak has 125-232-140. Tom Thomson rolls 702.

Week 8 Rebecca Coyle, known for great timing, leaves TWO 5-7-10's then joins the jackpot. Pat "Mr.Consistency" Mueller bowls 224-224-214, while Bill Clarke shoots 171-236-171. Dave "Century" Riechmann starts with 242 and ends with 142.

Week 9 Dennis Hobbs blows a triplicate of 152-152-156, but he won the 3rd game by only one point, so he's excused. Other near triplicates were Phil Jozwiak's 212-202-212, and Mike Borgard had 209-223-209.

Week 10 No team gets more than 30 points – can you say BORING? Randy "Mr.Consistency" Dreiling follows a 235 with 148. Good bowling: Ron Halbach's 717 and Tim Tobin's 703.

Week 11 Atomic's BLIND leads the team with 3 points of their 9. They get better later in the year. Tell me if this is getting old: Phil "Mr.Consistency" Jozwiak has 225-155-245.

Week 12 "Century" bowlers: Mark Hejna rolls 124 after 237. Marc Perez slips to 162 following 265. Is it their first name or what?

Week 13 Kirt Ervin shoots 269/703. Mike "Mr.Consistency" Borgard bowls 257-152-244. Kevin "Century" Jesse has 147-257. Two potential high triplicates were by Ken Munder with 203-203-268 followed in the lineup by Tim Tobin with 203-203-206.

Week 14 Transportation takes over first place then holds it for the rest of the season except 3 weeks. Dave Riechmann's 274/643 helped a lot (his first game with a 159 put Civil to sleep).

Week 15 Mike Borgard rolls 300/716 (both are first times for him). Great bowling!

Week 16 End of the first half with Transportation on top. There were NO BLINDS for the first time this year. Two of the position round matches ended 33-7; the six other matches had the winning team get 27, 27.5, or 28 points.

Week 17 The start of the second half saw all top-10 averages in the league above 200 for the first time in history. Paul Anderson rolls a nice 706 but gets only one point against Tim Wilson's 721.

Week 18 Heating has all 5 bowlers roll 500 series ranging from 510 to 544. Pat "Mr.Consistency" Mueller shoots 161-192-286. Good bowling for Ken Munder with 738 and Mike Borgard with 728.

Week 19 There were no blinds, but it happens only once again this year. Paul “Mr.Consistency” Anderson rolls 230-149-235. Ken M. gets lucky 2 weeks in a row and shoots 728.

Week 20 Carl Vogt goes ape and rolls 279/716. Tom Thomson shoots 289 but his 702 is the first 700 series knocked off the top-10 list. Civil and Mechanical combine for 6 series of 600 or better out of the 10 bowlers, topped by Tim Tobin’s 705.

Week 21 Kirt Ervin’s fantastic 300-258-279/837 has 32 strikes in 39 shots, only four 9-counts from total perfection. Like other footnotes in history, Len Lehmkuhl’s 709 sort of went unnoticed. Atomic rolls a season-high 3014 scratch team series.

Week 22 Ron Halbach has his best night in many long-overdue years with 248-279-238/765. Atomic suffers the big let-down and gets only 2.5 points from Research.

Week 23 Research’s and Electrical’s match featured each game’s winner as 1147-1146-1145. Ramin Ashrafzadeh is new to 700-land with a 718. Kirt rebounds with a 720 after a 627 the week before. It’s odd but Ron H. follows his big series with a 627 this week.

Week 24 Aeronautical’s and Mechanical’s “full house” match features three 500’s and two 600’s for each team. Aero has only one game below 175 and shoots a season-high 1083 team scratch game. Construction’s bowlers all forget their signature “flame” shirts and only get 4 points. They say that clothes make the man.

Week 25 Construction doesn’t wear their shirts again and only get 6 points. Electrical’s and Atomic’s match has every winning handicap series above 700. Randy “Century” Dreiling gets a 256 following a 139. Paul Anderson knocks his own 706 off the board with a 708.

Week 26 Len Lehmkuhl shoots an 11-in-a-row 290, dropping every game below 279 off the top-10 list. Good series were rolled by Phil Jozwiak with 726 and Ken Munder with 741. Mike “Century” Borgard shows up with 150 followed by 253.

Week 27 Civil and Atomic TIE both games 2 and 3. Can’t anyone make a decision? Good things come in pairs as Ken M. follows last week’s 279 in game 3 with a 279 this week in game 1, ending with 708. Josh Warren also rolls a 279.

Week 28 Only 6 of 16 teams shoot above average for the team series. We learn later that the lane conditioning machine has some new parts. Jim Schriefer adds his own 279 to the rapidly expanding list. Ramin “Mr.Consistency” Ashrafzadeh rolls 131-236-161.

Week 29 More low scores as the lanes get a little better. Pat “Century” Mueller has 158-258.

Week 30 With only a week’s respite from our favorite game score, another 279 is shot by Len Lehmkuhl. Mike Banashek rolls a nice 247-235-234/716, overshadowed by Kirt’s 749 and Len’s 721, which helps Aeronautical to a 3003 scratch team series. Railroad loses game 1 to Electrical by 2 pins, then wins games 2, 3, and the series by 2 pins each.

Week 31 Don Posey shoots an 11-in-a-row 290. Wade Williams rolls another 279 and aids Atomic’s rout of Transportation to set up the big showdown the next week. All is not glitter as Wade earns a “Century” award with a 153 following the big game. Marc Perez fumbles on a triplicate with 168-168-169.

Week 32 Atomic does the unimaginable and passes Transportation to win the second half. The Mueller twins do very well as Greg ends his late-arrival comeback with a 708, and Pat rolls 717 for the last spot on the top-10. To make the season complete Pat also shoots a 279. Enough of that score already!

Roll-Off Atomic and Transportation are about sick of seeing each other for 3 weeks in a row. Atomic blows out the first game by 262 pins and goes on to take the league championship.
